

Salt Lake City Riparian Corridor Improvement Projects

PUBLIC WORKSHOP

Salt Lake City's Department of Public Utilities is working on plans and priorities for implementing riparian corridor improvement projects on City, Red Butte, Emigration, and Parleys Creeks, and the Jordan River. Learn more and contribute your ideas to the planning process at one of the upcoming public workshops.

We need your input!

Help design creek crossing signs and select sign locations for installation in summer 2012. Please join us at the first of two rounds of public workshops:

Tuesday, February 28, 2012
6-8 p.m.
Anderson-Foothill Library
1135 South 2100 East

Wednesday, February 29, 2012
6-8 p.m.
Day-Riverside Branch Library
1575 West 1000 North

For more information, go to www.slch2o.com