LEGACY NATURE PRESERVE

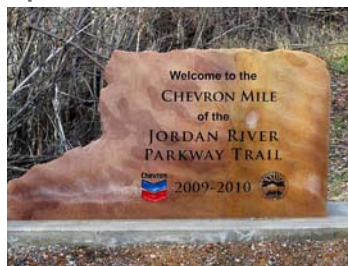

The Legacy Nature Preserve contains 2,100 acres of bare mudflats, seasonal wet meadow, deep emergent marshes, and meandering open water channels. The preserve links the Great Salt Lake ecosystem to the Wasatch Mountain ecosystems. The preserve is not open to the public, however, it can be viewed from the Legacy Parkway trail.

2100 WEST 500 SOUTH, WOODS CROSS, UT 84087

CHEVRON MILE TRAIL

The Chevron Mile Trail connects the southern end of the Legacy Parkway trail to the northern end of the Jordan River Parkway trail. The first mile was constructed in Davis County in 2010. It received its name due to a generous contribution from the Chevron Corporation towards the completion of this trail section.
